Requirements for verifying your identity under the new Anti Money Laundering (AML)/Counter Terrorism Financing (CTF) Act

The new AML/CTF Act came into effect on the 12th December 2007. All financial planning and fund management companies are now required to collect, verify and store specific customer information before arranging certain services such as managed investments for a client. It is designed to prevent, detect and protect Australian business from money laundering and the financing of terrorist activities.

We are currently in a transition phase and as such whilst most companies will not accept any new business without a person identity being verified, there are a number that still do not. To avoid confusion, we request that all new applications are sent with 'certified documentation'.

We've found that the easiest way to provide the required documentation is to have a copy of your driving licence or passport certified by Australia Post or a Justice of the Peace (please see following page for a full list of individuals that can certify documentation).

Once this has been completed, under the current requirements we will not require you to send identification again.

What you need to do

You will need to enclose a certified piece of photographic evidence or one piece of primary non-photographic evidence and one piece of secondary evidence (please refer to the Identification Form for document requirements), with your application form and post to us at the following address

Wealth Focus Pty Ltd

Please do not send us original driving licences or passports as these can very easily get lost in the post. Copies of documents can be certified by an authorised individual, they will need to sight and verify that the copy is a 'certified true copy', sign, date, print their name and list their qualification.

Important information

This transfer may close your account (you will need to check this with your from fund).

This form can NOT be used to:

- transfer benefits if you don't know where your superannuation is
- transfer benefits from multiple funds on this one form – a separate form must be completed for each fund you wish to transfer superannuation from
- change the fund to which your employer pays contributions on your behalf
- open a superannuation account, or
- transfer benefits under certain conditions or circumstances, for example if there is a superannuation agreement under the Family Law Act 1975 in place.

What happens to my future employer contributions?

Using this form to transfer your benefits will not change the fund to which your employer pays your contributions and may close the account you are transferring your benefits from.

If you wish to change the fund into which your contributions are being paid, you will need to speak to your employer about Choice. For the appropriate forms and information about whether you are eligible to choose the fund to which your employer contributions are made, visit www.superchoice.gov.au or call the Tax Office on 13 10 20.

Things you need to consider when transferring your superannuation

When you transfer your superannuation, your entitlements under that fund may cease. You need to consider all relevant information before you make a decision to transfer your superannuation. If you ask for information, your superannuation provider must give it to you. Some of the points you may consider are:

- Fees – your from fund must give you information about any exit or withdrawal fees. If you are not aware of the fees that may apply, you should contact your fund for further information before completing this form. The fees could include administration fees as well as exit or withdrawal fees. Your to fund may also charge entry or deposit fees on transfer. Differences in fees funds charge can have a significant effect on what you will have to retire on. For example, a 1% increase in fees may significantly reduce your final benefit.
- Death and disability benefits – your from fund may insure you against death, illness or an accident which leaves you unable to return to work. If you choose to leave your current fund, you may lose any insurance entitlements you have. Other funds may not offer insurance, or may require you to pass a medical examination before they cover you. When considering a new fund, you may wish to check the costs and amount of any cover offered.

If you require additional information about superannuation, you may wish to visit the Australian Securities and Investment Commission website www.fido.asic.gov.au.

Please send your completed and signed form to the fund from which you are transferring.

Sending this form to the transferring fund may not always be sufficient and the existing service provider may require completion of their own withdrawal documentation. There may also be specific identification requirements your client needs to satisfy for the transferring fund. Please contact the transferring fund for further details.

Authorisation

To the Trustee, I request that you transfer my existing superannuation entitlements as specified above to North Personal Pension and send a cheque payable to 'North', GPO Box 2915, Melbourne VIC 3001.

You are requested and duly authorised to provide AXA North with all the relevant details, including details of my membership and any other information that may be required to effect this transfer.

I make the following statements:

- The information I have provided in this form is true and correct
- I understand and acknowledge the implications and effects of transferring my benefits from my transferring super fund to my AXA account.
- I consent to you speaking with my financial adviser and/or their authorised delegate.
