Anti-money Laundering Questions and Answers

What are the new anti-money laundering laws?

The Government has introduced new laws in the Anti-money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Financing (AML/CTF) Act 2006. The new laws require businesses that provide certain financial services to identify their customers before providing a service and report suspicious transactions.

What is money laundering?

Money laundering is the process criminals use to disguise the source of illegally obtained money so that it appears to have come from legitimate sources.

What is terrorist financing?

Terrorist financing is the act of providing financial support to terrorists or terrorist organisations to enable them to carry out terrorist acts.

Why has the new legislation been introduced?

Australia has implemented new laws to improve its existing anti-money laundering and counter terrorism financing system and bring it in line with international standards. The new laws will make it harder for criminals to use the proceeds of crime and terrorists to receive money to carry out terrorist acts.

What does the new legislation mean for me?

When applying for a new product/s, individuals will need to provide verification information such as a certified copy of a passport or driver's licence. For non-individuals such as companies and trusts, more information will be required, for example a certified copy of an ASIC certificate of registration or trust deed. Please refer below for the required identification and verification material for AML/CTF purposes.

Can a tax file number be used to verify my identity?

No. A tax file number cannot be used or disclosed to establish or confirm your identity.

Will my personal information be safe?

All financial services providers covered by the new legislation are required to keep client information in a safe and secure environment, as required by the AML/CTF Act and the Privacy Act 1988 (Privacy Act). The Privacy Act covers the collection, use, disclosure, quality and security of personal information. You can view our privacy statement on www.willmottforests.com.au
